

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

The Fordham Handicap the Only Stake Event at Morris Park.

Rudolph Looks Well on Paper and May Win.

Those who visit Morris Park to-day will not regret the journey, for they will witness some excellent racing. The programme is unusually attractive, and the events will furnish exciting contests.

There is but one stake event, the Fordham Handicap, for all ages. That good horse Rudolph is named as a starter. Under the scale he concedes eight pounds to Sir Walter, twenty-two to Terrifier and Piddler.

Ferryman Smith, of Randall's Island, Found It So and Profited.

BREW CITY SUPPLIES AND KEPT A BOARDING-HOUSE.

RESIGNED BECAUSE HE HAD TO DO IT.

The ferry which takes passengers from the foot of East one hundred and twentieth street to Randall's Island has a new captain. His name is John J. Reilly, Capt. W. H. Smith, who was in charge of the vessel for seven years, resigned last Thursday, and now devotes his entire attention to his legal and handy shop and boarding-house on the island.

Clifton Felicitations.

A very good card is offered by the Clifton Athletic Club for today, and the racing should be close and exciting throughout. All the fields are large and the quality much above the average.

CORONERS ARE MEEK.

They'll Remedy 'the Little Matters' Hit by the Grand Jury.

BUT THEY DON'T EXPLAIN HOW THEY ARE GOING TO DO IT.

RESULT OF A STAR CHAMBER SESSION.

Notices were sent out on Monday, by Chief Clerk Reynolds, of the Coroners office, summoning the four Coroners to attend a meeting of the board at 2:30 yesterday afternoon.

Coroner McKeena stood in the outer office muttering to himself the word "matters." "Did you say the 'little matters'?" he asked.

Coroner Lott was asked by Chief Clerk Reynolds, "What was the result of your meeting?" "Well, I don't know," he said. "I'm afraid it's a little matter."
